

Scoring, Purse and Rules

Getting to the Podium

The 6 teams (3M/3F) with the most points accumulated over all events will earn a spot on the podium.

Purse

The top teams in each division will also take home the purse, calculated as follows:

1st place = $2.50/point

2nd place = $1.50/point

3rd place = $1.00/point

Total points available:

700

Teams scored on a per-event chart of 50 or 100 points

All teams will compete in the first five events. The eight teams in each division (M/F) with the most accumulated points after Event 5 will advance to the finale (Event 6) to determine the podium finishers.

See the scoring chart below and refer to event descriptions to determine if it is a 50- or 100-point event.

NEW EVENT BONUS!

The winner of each event for both male and female teams will win $100!

PURSE PAYOUT EXAMPLES

The first-place female team earns 600 points over the weekend, but doesn't win an individual event. The total payout for the team is $1,500 (600 x $2.50) to be split between the team members.

The third-place female team finishes with 520 points and wins Event 2. Their total payout is $620: 520 x $1.00, plus $100 for Event 2.

The fourth-place female team finishes with 510 points and wins Events 3 and 4. Their total payout is $200 ($100 for each event).

Athletes who earn $600 or more individually will receive a 1099.

RULES

1. In the event of a tie, the team with the best finish in any single event will be ranked above the other team. Example: Team 1 and Team 2 tie for 3rd place overall, but Team 1 finished 1st in Event 4 and Team 2's best finish was 2nd in Event 5. Team 1 would win the tie-breaker. This will continue through all the event finishes until the tie is broken.
2. There is a :01 penalty for repetitions or movements not completed before the time cap. There may be partial units given to 1/10 of a second if the situation warrants.
3. If there is an event scored by weight lifted, the team with the highest weight lifted will be ranked above the next team.
4. In the event of a tie, all teams will receive the same points (i.e., if they tied for 6th on an event, each team would receive 75 points). The next finishing team would have an 8th place finish for 71 points.
5. Any team disqualified for any reason will not be eligible for prize money.
6. All athletes are required to have completed and to abide by the appropriate waivers; and to have paid and validly registered for entry.
7. All athletes agree to compete in a sportsmanlike manner. Any athlete deemed to act in an un-sportsmanlike manner, such as; arguing with a judge, fighting, taunting, heckling, or using profanity, may be removed from the event and disqualified from future events.
8. Athletes can be held accountable for their supporters, coaches and spectators.
9. Any obvious or questionable infraction to the movement standards or range of motion will result in a loss of repetition.
10. Any movement deemed uncommon or out of the ordinary used to amend or shorten/change the accepted range-of-motion standard is not allowed.
11. If an athlete cannot continue with the competition, the team will be scored on the number of repetitions completed for the event in which the injury occurs. Teams will not be allowed to continue with 1 athlete. There are no substitutions.
12. Any dispute must be taken to the head judge by the athlete at the end of the workout. Coaches, spectators or video/phone media is not grounds for changing a decision. The head judge and on-site director may ask for any related media, but it may or may not be used in the overall decision.
13. Judgment calls made during the workout are final and not negotiable or subject to modification or change.
14. The event head judge on the floor has the final say on any dispute involving movement standards or completion of movements by an athlete.
15. The CrossFit Fort Vancouver Event Director is not limited in decisions based on the rules written and has the absolute, sole discretion to make final decisions and remove or disqualify any athlete or team.
